

Priority

Priority is the preferential right of the person who files the first registration application or patent application to apply for legal protection of an invention as a utility model. The filing date of the first registration application or patent application shall be considered the date of priority.

Was this information useful? *      Yes

No

Please provide details:

Last modified 22.02.2017

Source URL: <https://www.epa.ee/en/preparation-and-filing-registration-application/priority>