

General information

On July 6, 2015 the Estonian Patent Office (EPA) joined the Global Patent Prosecution Highway (GPPH) pilot program. The GPPH pilot allows patent applicants to request accelerated examination at any of the offices involved in the pilot if their claims have been found to be acceptable by any of the other offices involved in the pilot. This program enables the applicants to receive patents faster and in a more rational way and for Office of the Later Examination (OLE) to make use of the work already carried out by the Office of the Earlier Examination (OEE) reducing the workload and optimizing use of resources.
