

The structure of Estonian Patent Office has changed

01.02.2016

Starting from February 1, 2016 the work of Estonian Patent Office is based on a new structure.

This means that instead of the former seven departments there are now four: Trade Mark Department, Patent Department, Registry Department and Financial and Administrative Department. Also, the number of staff in the Office has been reduced.

Source URL: <https://www.epa.ee/en/news/structure-estonian-patent-office-has-changed>